Commitment to CommUnity

We believe that community banks are, and always will be, the lifeblood of the communities they serve, providing stability in the face of ever-changing economic, political, and regulatory landscapes.

One way First United Bank & Trust demonstrates our unwavering dedication to supporting the community is through active volunteerism. Our associates generously contributed over 11,300 hours last year to various causes, serving on local committees and boards, and performing financial education outreach.

As connectors in our communities, our community bankers establish deep relationships that extend far beyond the scope of financial services. We are committed to doing the right thing for our associates, customers, communities, and shareholders.

Our priorities include integrating technology, marketing, and communications while being environmentally conscious. Enhancing efficiency and user-friendliness through technological advancements is vital, and delivering clear, authentic communication is important to us.

We know our responsibility to those who have a vested interest in our success.

We seek to make decisions that balance the needs of our partners and the constituents we serve.

We understand the importance of considering environmental, social, human rights, and reputation risks when making business decisions.

We strive to balance these considerations through our deep commitment to stakeholder engagement.

We are and always will be your bank, our bank, MY BANK!

Purpose at Work
